

FENG SHUI FORECAST

Harnessing fast-moving energy, cosmic shifts, and new beginnings

By Priya Subberwal

The Year of the Fire Horse arrives on 4 February 2026, ushering in a cycle defined by speed, ambition, and high emotional momentum. Known as one of the most dynamic signs in the Chinese zodiac, the Fire Horse brings rapid movement, bold decisions, and transformative shifts—both personally and collectively.

Historically, Fire Horse years mark periods of political disruption, social evolution and identity reinvention. This is a year to take action, step into visibility and embrace change rather than resist it.
